Transaction points calculation method

- For the following CFDs, each closed position is equivalent to 1 point: precious metals and crude oil CFDs.
- The following CFDs have a closing order equivalent to 0.25 points per lot: all direct currency CFDs.
- The following CFDs are equivalent to 0.50 points per lot for closing out: all cross-currency CFDs.
- The following CFDs will not be calculated: all other CFDs.
- Valid trading points requirement: A trading position must be held for more than 60 seconds to be considered a valid trading point and eligible to participate in this activity.
- Verification Statement: If it is discovered or verified that an account has engaged in illegal EA or other illegal algorithmic trading activities (including but not limited to malicious order placement, market manipulation, etc.), or has exhibited abnormal trading behavior or illegal credit card deposit behavior, the organizer has the right to immediately disqualify the account from participating in the event and cancel or recover any related rewards already obtained or pending distribution.

Risk Disclosure

Clients should understand that Contracts for Difference (CFDs) are leveraged products involving high-risk investments. By trading these products, clients must understand the potential loss of some or all of their capital. These products may not be suitable for all investors, and clients should ensure they understand the risks involved. If necessary, clients should seek independent financial advice. CFD trading may not be suitable for everyone, so please ensure you fully understand the risks before participating. BCR does not provide any personal advice, recommendations, or opinions regarding buying, holding, or handling CFDs. BCR is not a professional financial advisor, and all services provided are on an execution-based basis.
